I got one woman, is all the woman in the world, and that's my wife, sweetest woman that God ever put on earth, for me. That's right.
She's mine, and mine alone;
and I'm hers, and hers alone.

Title: 64-0412 — A Court Trial

I got one woman, is all the woman in the world, and that's my wife, sweetest woman that God ever put on earth, for me. That's right.

She's mine, and mine alone; and I'm hers, and hers alone.

And that: when I was a young man I thought that; now I'm an old man and I still think it.

What a feeling, what a consolation!

William Marrion Branham

Title: 57-0417 — The Second Coming Of The Lord

77 Could you imagine coming in at nighttime, tired, weary, worn?

If you're a farmer, mechanic, preacher, whatever you are, come in, when you go into your little home, you're longing till you can get there.

~ 3 ~

You open the door and a sweet little wife stands there, she greets you.

She's all prettied and cleaned up.

She walks over and kisses you on the cheek, she said, "Dad, you're tired."

She sets you down in a chair, she sets herself down on your lap, she puts her arms around you and she pats you.

It just seems like then that you're not tired, something picks you up.

It's something that God gave you for that purpose.

It's a part of you, now, if she's a true wife.

78 But what if those lips has kissed another man that day or some other time?

~ 5 ~

What if you're conscious of that?

What if them arms has hugged another man?

She is absolutely abomination on your lap.

That kiss burns like a Judas' kiss.

Those arms, you'd rather they wouldn't be around you.

Oh, she may be all prettied up, her hair may be curly, her eyes may be brown, her cheeks may be rosy, her little skirts may be ironed, she may be so pretty, but if that real genuine godly respect and love and confidence isn't there, she'd be better off to stay off your lap.

You don't want nothing to do with her, she's a—she's an indebtment to you.

I don't care how pretty she makes herself, she's still wrong until she is proven to be a real, genuine sweetheart, loving nobody but you, no other kiss from her lips but yours, no other arms must hold her but yours, and you know it. What a feeling, what a consolation!

*Get alone with God and let the dewdrops of mercy fall upon you
in the stillness.*

William Marrion Branham

Title: 55-1006A — A Hidden Life

44 Now, notice, the first thing was a refreshment.

What makes the seed grow?

Did you ever get up of the morning and find the dew that fell down from heaven and refreshes the earth?

How does it refresh it?

When it's at peace.

~ 3 ~

The dew don't fall in day time.

The dew falls in the nighttime, when everything is at peace.

The dew can never fall on you, my brother, as long as you're fussing, and arguing, and stewing about the things here on this earth.

Get alone with God and let the
dewdrops of mercy fall upon you
in the stillness.

Precious memories, how they linger, how they ever fill my soul;
in the stillness of the midnight secrets unfold.

How that God can get His believer with the curtains dropped around him alone to himself, He will bring down a refreshing from heaven, that there's no other person, or no other way in the world ever know it, only he that's laying there.

45 Did you ever walk out of the morning in that real fresh, cool feeling?

God has refreshed His earth.

Fragrance, did you ever go into a rose garden?

Down my place they got a lot of honeysuckles.

The honeysuckle don't smell much along in the heat of the day, but it's early of the morning, when all the air has been purified, then that aroma of the honeysuckle...

Let a man be out fussing, fighting, stewing, and you'll never get much of aroma from that of the gospel, but let him get alone one time in the stillness of God.

Every man that comes to the pulpit ought to dwell alone first.

Then comes the fruits, yielding forth it's fruits.

Every man that stays in the Presence of God, into this great secret place, hid away will yield the fruits of righteousness, peace, love, joy, longsuffering, goodness, gentleness, patience.

Don't fuss about these other things.

Get that in your life, and you'll never get it until you hide away with God into that land of adoption.

The Surprises at the Judgment

William Marrion Branham

Title: 61-0101 — Revelation, Chapter Four Part II

88 I preached not long ago, at the judgment... The Surprises at the Judgment.

It won't be surprise to see the bootlegger there, he knows he's going. Sure.

Won't be surprise to see the liar, the adulterer, everything there, that ain't.

But the surprise will be, and the disappointment will be, those who think they were going; uh-huh, yeah, and then be turned down.

Those who said, "Well, wait a minute, my mother belonged to this church, my father belonged to this church, my grandfather and grandmother. I've been a member there all my life.”

89 “Depart from Me, you worker of iniquity, I didn't even know you.”

And I said, “Wait a minute, sister. You can’t walk that highway with that.”

William Marrion Branham

*Title: 65-0418M — It Is The Rising
Of The Sun*

231 Now look. How can you say that that Spirit dwells in you? Though you done everything that you thought was right, here is your evidence whether you got It or not. If the Spirit that was in Christ is in you, It also quickens you to the Word, for He is the Word. And if it, contrary, quickens you away from the Word, then it isn't the Spirit of Christ!...care what you done, until That moves you in the Word. "My sheep hear My Voice, and they shall live by every Word," every Word! I was talking on that the other day.

232 My own mother, she's gone on now, and she was a very odd woman. And she was, you know, about a half Indian, and she was odd. But in there she was a person that didn't dream. But I don't think... She only had four or five dreams, all of her life. But every time she dreamed a dream, it was true. She had a dream, it was true.

233 I remember one time when I first started preaching, many years ago.

We was living right up here on the road, right just above here.

I was preaching right here at this church.

And she dreamed a dream, that I was standing here by the side of three steps.

And I was standing, preaching to everybody, that they must walk up these three steps before they hit the highway.

And on the highway is a little pearly-like white line, run right into the—the—the doors of Heaven, to the pearly gate.

And that pearl had been stretched out to the top of these steps.

If that ain't my Message exactly today: justification, sanctification, the baptism of the Holy Ghost!

And I was saying that a person has to come by these three steps, to be able to walk that highway. And said that...

234 There was a lady came by.

Now, you know what kind of shoes people wore thirty-five years ago.

There was a lady come by, had on a great big pair like they wear today, spike-heeled shoes.

And she come by.

And I said, “Wait a minute, sister. You can’t walk that highway with that.”

And I said, “You—you, you can’t do that.”

235 And she said, “Ah!”

She said, looked around at the rest of the women, said, “Don’t believe him. He’s a madman. See? Don’t believe him. I’ll show you I can be justified, sanctified, and filled with the Holy Ghost, and still walk that.”

And she... I just let her go.

Couldn’t do no more about it, couldn’t stop her.

And she jumped up on the highway.

And she looked back at the sister, said, “See, I told you!”

She started to run up, and she...

236 You know, as the Bible said, in Isaiah, 5th chapter, that they would have “outstretched necks.”

They have to; they’re pitched over, see. “Mincing as...” They have to, have to twist, “Mincing as they go, making a tinkling with their heels; see, the daughters of Zion in the last day.”

237 And she started up that highway, just as hard as she could run.

And, after a while, the road got narrower and narrower.

She started reeling, mincing like that, and off she went.

238 And mother said, “The horriblemst screams that I ever heard in my life, was that woman falling into those flames and smoke, going down, down like that.”

Said, I “turned around and said, ‘See?’”

239 She just obeyed everything but one Word, see, everything but one Word.

Sure, Pentecostal women can be saved, sanctified, and filled with the Holy Ghost, and then fail. Absolutely.

“Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every Word that proceeds.” See? See?

And she failed It.

And as I said, see, she would have went on in, all right, but, see, she failed to listen; telling her what was ahead.

And He's wrote the Gospel by the disciples, apostles, and Doctrine of the apostles and prophets, and so forth, and they won't listen.

And to you, you lukewarm church member, that you're trying to impersonate Christianity, one of these days you're going to try to follow that Holy Ghost band, and you'll find out your wheels will come off out yonder in the muddy somewhere. That's right.

William Marrion Branham

Title: 53-0327 — Israel And The Church #3

108 They had their armors on, their girdles, they marched out.

They come right straight up to the Red Sea.

Pharaoh was glad to let them go.

And when they got up to the Red Sea, there they seen his army come, pursuing them.

~3~

And there they was, camped right there, the mountains and deserts on this side, Pharaoh's army coming this way, the Red Sea before them.

But God's path led through the Red Sea.

As long as I know His path's leading, that's all I care about, just keep on walking.

Said, "Moses," Hallelujah, "take that stick, walk down towards that water." Amen!

“What’s going to happen, Lord?”

“That’s none of your business. Just keep walking!” Amen.

109 Preach the Gospel, Tom Merideth and the rest of you guys. “What’s going to happen?” It’s none of your business; just preach on! Give God praise.

110 Here they go, moving down there.

One of the writers said that God was in that Pillar of Fire, “And

He looked down through with angry eyes.”

And said, “When He did, the Red Sea got scared and begin to move back, and Israel passed through on dry land.”

Never even got their feet muddy.

111 Well, these guys come along, said, “We’re just as human as they are, and we worship the same as they do, so we’ll do it.” And when they got out there, they found out they couldn't make it.

112 And that's what's going to happen one of these days, brother, when the separating time comes.

And to you, you lukewarm church member, that you're trying to impersonate Christianity, one of these days you're going to try to follow that Holy Ghost band, and you'll find out your wheels will come off out yonder in the muddy somewhere. That's right.

There was ten virgins went to meet the Lord, five of them were wise, and five foolish.

Put Oil in your lamp, trim her bright, one of these days they're going up.

And there was weeping and wailing, and gnashing of teeth!

113 And those uncircumcised Egyptians, why couldn't they make it?

They wasn't circumcised.

They wasn't in the covenant.

If they had been circumcised believers, God would have had to recognize them the same as He recognized Israel.

Glory! Oh, I wish I was twice my size right now.

I feel religious, I really do.

Notice, they were uncircumcised.

They wasn't in the covenant,
though they were men.

They were dressed just as nice, and better.

They lived just as good.

They had better homes.

They was in a better class of people, worldly thinking.

They went to church the same as the rest of them did.

They had followed right along.

Don't tell me they didn't know anything about God. Joseph had already told them and spread the news down there, four hundred years before. Sure, they did.

But they thought, “That bunch of fanatics, we can do anything they can.”

But they failed.

God only recognized the circumcision.

There they went.

114 No wonder little ol' David stood, said, "You mean to tell me that the armies of the living God will stand here, let that uncircumcised Philistine defy the armies of the living God?" He said, "Put me on something, let me go." Yes, sir. Give us some more Davids.

115 When they come across the stream, got on the other side.

God just closed it in, there was the old taskmasters.

Could you imagine how them Jews felt?

Looked back there, and there was the very thing that had made, and whipped them, and beat their back into stripes, and pulled them over like this, was dead, floating in the sea.

116 Brother, when you come through the red sea of the Blood of Jesus Christ, every old dirty habit that's drove you to things that you wouldn't do, you'll find it dead in the Blood of Jesus Christ, (hallelujah, that's right), floating on down the stream.

117 No wonder Moses got in the Spirit!

Now, you talk about we having some kind of new kind of religion, look at this.

Miriam, a prophetess, she looked out there, she picked up a tambourine, and she begin to beat and dance, and she went down the banks of the sea, dancing, beating this tambourine.

And the daughters of Israel followed her, dancing and singing, and beating this tambourine.

And Moses raised up his hands, and got so caught away in the Holy Ghost till he sung in the Spirit. Hallelujah! That's right. That's right.
