God wants you to be happy

William Marrion Branham

*Title: 56-0405 — The Resurrection
Of Jesus*

God don't want you to be frowning.

God wants you to be happy.

The human heart was made to be happy.

Worry will cause cancer.

Temper will cause cancer.

~ 3 ~

Don't never be upset.

Just walk in His love. Amen.

Knowing that you're walking in Him, and nothing can harm you.

There's nothing can harm you.

There's neither powers,
things present, things future,
nothing can separate us from Him.

We're in Him.

And we never come in by our own will.

He, by choice, elected us and brought us in to Him. Amen.

So it's His business to take care of what He's took Hissself.

“No man can pluck them from My Father's hands, 'cause He's the greatest of all of them.” Amen.

It's the Father Who takes care of it.

Who's got any more power than God? So what kind of a power have you got over you to take care of you? The whole powers that created the universes. Amen. That took the solar system and, "Phew!" blew like that, and every star went to its place. Sure. And He watches over you. Amen. That's the kind of a Father we have.

See, don't fear. Don't get scared.
There ain't nothing going to happen.
Nothing can happen.
Nothing can bother a Christian. Amen.

William Marrion Branham

Title: 55-0121 — The Water Of Separation

15 I used to oftentime wonder what's the matter with the Christian church, they're so scared of things.

Why, you've got nothing to be scared about.

The first word nearly Jesus said after the resurrection, "Fear not."

~ 3 ~

See, don't fear.

Don't get scared.

There ain't nothing going to happen.

Nothing can happen.

Nothing can bother a Christian. Amen.

Not even death itself can even touch the Christian.

“He that heareth My words, and believeth on him that sent Me, hath Everlasting Life, and shall not come into condemnation; but has passed from death to Life.” Amen.

Death itself has no reign over a Christian. Christ died in our stead. Amen.

Look at a little robin. He'll raise, every morning, the first thing, throw his little face up towards the heavens and go to singing to the top of his voice. You never seen any of them with high blood pressure, walking on crutches, with diabetes.

William Marrion Branham

Title: 53-0405S — Go, Tell My Disciples

140 And today He lives within our hearts. That's why we are happy and can sing. That's why we can notice Him. Here not long ago, Jesus Christ, the Son of God, done a great miracle for me in my own life. He has done miracles for you. He walks with you daily. He walks with every believer. “Lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the world.” No matter what comes or goes, Christ still lives and reigns today in the human heart.

141 That’s why, as the story said; you watch, every morning, we get up grouchy, and get out, and, “Well, I’m just about half asleep,” and so forth. No wonder we’ve got high blood pressure, and diabetes, and everything else.

142 Look at a little robin. He'll raise, every morning, the first thing, throw his little face up towards the heavens and go to singing to the top of his voice. You never seen any of them with high blood pressure, walking on crutches, with diabetes.

143 Said, a little robin said, one time, said, “Well, wonder what’s the matter,” said “these people, these things, and creatures that call themselves human beings?” Said, “Why, they must be so sad. Maybe they haven’t got a Heavenly Father like we’ve got, that takes care of us.”

The Christian has not one worry in the world. They should be the most freest, happiest people in all the world.

Title: 54-0301 — The Angel Of The Covenant

2 Now, one night this week, if the Lord willing, I want to speak a Gospel message on the “God’s Unconditional Covenant.” And perhaps maybe tomorrow night, if the Lord will...It’s nothing but just to build the faith of the people, just to get them built up to a place where it gets all the scare away from them. And we're trying our best to do that.

The Christian has not one worry in the world.

They should be the most freest, happiest people in all the world.

'Cause there's nothing... You can't lose.

And all things work together for good to them that love God.

So how can we lose?

There's just nothing to lose, is there?

We're just anchored away in Jesus Christ, going home to glory, having a good time while we're going along, God providing everything for us. Marvelous.

There's no value in unbelief, all the value there is, is in faith, believing God's Word, taking God at His Word.

William Marrion Branham

Title: 62-0128M — Unbelief Does Not Hinder God

89 You're—you're controlled by two elements, either you believe, or you do not believe.

Now, let's take unbelief and see what it does. It creates a worry, and it brings oppressions, and it can't help you at all, there's no value in unbelief at all.

90 If you, say, if you were going to be shot in the morning at sunrise, it wouldn't—it wouldn't help you any to worry about it, not a bit, it'd only just make it worse on you. So you—you can't do that, not good to do it.

91 “Well,” you say, “what does faith do?” It...“What does the Word of God do?” It creates a faith.

“Well, what could faith do if you was going to be shot in the morning?” It could deliver me, has done it many times. Sure. See?

There's no value in unbelief, all the value there is, is in faith, believing God's Word, taking God at His Word.

No matter what takes place,
Christ is our Refuge.
And when we come to Him, we can let off the pressure.

William Marrior Branham

Title: 62-0513E — Letting Off The Pressure

92 The man must want to stay in the refuge.

He can't go in there complaining.

He must want to stay, no complainings about it.

Outside, he dies. Inside, he is safe.

93 Well, I want to say something, the people here, if you're not a Christian.

I come to this city of Refuge, about thirty-one years ago.

And, brother, I've never wanted to go out.

Oh, I come into Christ. Everything that I longed for was in Here. I don't want to go out.

I pray daily, “O God, I’m so happy here. Just let me stay.”

I never want to leave, and I know He will never leave me. I know He will never leave you.

And the pressure gets great, if it does, then He is our outlet, so we don’t have to—to worry about it.

94 If you’re all pressured up, and don’t know where you’re going, what’s going to happen to you after death; and you know you're going to die sometime, you've got it to do; then the thing to come, is come to Christ, the Refuge, and let off the pressure. Settle it, once for all.

95 No matter what takes place, Christ is our Refuge.

And when we come to Him, we can let off the pressure.

You can quit worrying about, "Well, if I die, what's going to happen to me? What's going to happen to the wife? What's going to happen to the husband? What's going to happen to the children?" Just come to Christ, and let off the pressure.

All, He give us all things.

All things are ours, by Christ, so just let the pressure off, the only one way you can do it.

Worry builds up pressure.
Pressure blows up. So just cast your cares on Him, and quit worrying. All right.

William Marrion Branham

Title: 62-0513E — Letting Off The Pressure

97 But if you ever come to Christ, you can let off the pressure, 'cause it's all over then, just settle it down.

It's God's provided place of safety, where God said, "The Name of the Lord is a mighty tower, the righteous run into It and are safe."

In a time of sickness, when sickness strikes, and the doctor says, “There’s nothing else I can do about it,” don’t build up pressure.

Let off the pressure. Call your pastor. Let him anoint you in oil and pray over you. “Prayer of faith shall save the sick.” Let off the pressure. See?

98 He’s our Refuge. While you’re in this Refuge, you got—you got right to anything that's in the Refuge. And Christ is our Refuge, and everything you have need of is in Him. Amen.

In sickness, don't build up pressure. Let off pressure.

99 You say, "Well, I—I wonder, Brother Branham." You don't wonder; you just let the pressure off. Commit your case to God, and go on as if it was all over. Don't build up pressure. It lets off pressure.

100 “Well,” you say, “I am so worried, Brother Branham. I just don't know.”

Let off the pressure. Amen. In the city of Refuge, He took your worry, so you—you don't have to have it. “Cast your cares on Him, for He careth for you.” Don't you worry about your cares. That's His business.

101 I met a woman, here some years ago in a ten-cent store. She was about sixty years old, looked about thirty years old. I said, “How do you do it, sister?”

102 She said, “Brother Branham, I’ve got two sons that’s doctors, that’s older than you are.” And honest to goodness, she—she didn’t look over thirty years old. She said, “Here is what it was. When I come to Christ, when I was about twelve years old, I set down and thought about it. I studied other religions. But when I found the true one,” she said, “I come to Christ, and took my case, my soul, my all, to Him.” And she said, “I’ve never had a worry since.”

Said, “Now, He promised to take care of all my troubles,” and said, “if He’s not big enough to do it, I know I’m not big enough to do it, so what’s the use of me worrying about it?” See? That’s it.

103 Christ promised that He’d take all your cares. “Cast your cares on Him.”

So what are you worried about?

Worry builds up pressure. Pressure blows up. So just cast your cares on Him, and quit worrying. All right.

104 Now, “Well,” you say, “how I do it?” Just trust His promise. He made a promise that He would do it, even in the time of death, when the death angel comes into the room. “Oh, Brother Branham, I know I’ll be nervous.” Oh, no. You’re in the Refuge. No, no. You know you’re going to die; you got to go some way, so just get into the Refuge, feel safe. That’s right. You’re safe as long as you’re in the Refuge.

Remember, He died for you. He cares for you. He died for you.

105 Now let's take a look. You say, "Brother Branham, you mean, when the death angel is knocking at the door, you're still not to get steamed up?" No, not a bit. "Well, how do you do that?" Come to the Refuge. That's all. "Well," you say, "Brother Branham..."

106 Well, now wait a minute. Let's take Israel, down in Egypt.

There come a time where God said, “I’m going to send the death angel through the land, and I’m going to take every one of the elders of the family, unless there’s blood on the door,” that great night of the passover.

107 Now, here is Israel, a promised people going to a promised land. And they...It’s the night of the passover. The death angel is in the land. And we hear a scream coming from down the street. We look out. Two big, black wings are waving down the street. You think Israel was all excited? No, sir.

108 Death was at the door. The little boy looked out the window. He is the oldest of the family. He sees that big black angel. He looks and said, “Daddy, do you love me?”

“Sure, son, I love you.”

“Well, Daddy, am I not your first born?”

“Yes, you are, son.”

“Look at there, daddy. That angel got that little boy. I knowed him. I played with him. Oh, daddy, here he comes, towards the house.”

“But, son, you see on that doorpost?” Hallelujah!

“Daddy, will he get me?”

“No, sir, son. He can’t get you.”

“Why?”

109 “That’s His promise. ‘When I see the Blood, I’ll pass over you.’ Go back and get your toys, and start playing, son. There is no need of worrying. We’re in God’s refuge. Let off the steam.”

110 Israel could set back and read the Bible; while the rest of them was screaming and building up steam, Israel was relaxed. Why? Death right at the door, what difference did it make? It can't hurt them.

111 So when death comes to our door, glory to God, as long as God's requirement, the Blood, has been placed on the lintel of my heart post, what difference does it make? It can't bother me.

112 The doctor says you're going to die tomorrow, what difference does it make? The Blood is on the post. You got to die, anyhow. But if that Blood has been applied, I've got a resurrection coming. Amen.

113 Israel could be calm, no building up steam for them, 'cause they knowed that the death angel couldn't strike them. They were under the blood. It was God's provided way.

Worry, there's no value in it. Faith...
So just get away from worry and have faith.

William Marrion Branham

Title: 56-0420 — When Their Eyes Were Opened

So now, may I explain this to you, that all sin and sickness was settled when God dealt with it at Calvary some nineteen hundred years ago, when His Son died to save us from sin and sickness. “He was wounded for our transgressions; with His stripes

we were healed.” That’s what the Scripture says.

17 Now, I don’t mean that He made one atonement for your sickness and one for your sins; He made one atonement, and that was for sin. And when you deal with sin, you’ve got to deal with every attribute of sin.

The human race, as we’re taught in the Scripture, didn’t have any sickness before sin came in. And then when sin came in, it...Sickness was issued in as a attribute of sin, which had to bring death. Sin is death. And sickness follows sin. Worry, follows sin. Did you ever notice what a horrible thing worry is? There's not one value in it at all.

I was speaking here some time ago to a group of—of—of men at a club in a city. And I—I said, “There's—there's not one value...If you was going to be killed in the morning,” I said, “worry would not help you one bit.”

I seen one man kinda look down and kinda laugh, and he said, “Well, what would faith do?”

I said, “Sign your pardon.”

That’s right. Worry, there’s no value in it. Faith... So just get away from worry and have faith.

A young boy with light brown hair, wearing a blue and white checkered shirt and dark suspenders, is sitting on a green lawn. He is laughing heartily with his mouth wide open and eyes squinted. In front of him are three fluffy yellow ducklings. One duckling is on the left, one is in the center foreground, and one is on the right. The background shows a brick house with a red roof and green shutters, and some greenery with white flowers.
