16 And I totally do not believe that—that Christ could be born on a twenty-fifth day of December, in Judaea, because it's colder than it is right here now. See?

Oh, and how could the shepherds be keeping their flocks by night?

And—and then the taxation and everything, and Mary having to come that far, from way down in Bethlehem up into Judaea, up into Jerusalem, rather, at the...for the taxation. I—I—I hardly could—could—could believe that. Come up, I believe she come to Nazareth, and so when...How that—that could be done.

It could not be—be done, but I believe that Christ was born in a spring, because in every way He was a Lamb.
See? You notice, He was born in a barn, and not a house?
