

It's to whosoever will, just as salvation is

Rev. William Marrion Branham

5 And Divine healing is not something that's just a, oh, a totem pole or a hocus-pocus. It's a Divine truth written in the Word of God, confirmed by the Holy Spirit. And it's not limited to any denomination, people, creed, color. It's to whosoever will, just as salvation is. It is a—a product of a finished work that we receive by faith in the great vicarious suffering and triumph resurrection of the Lord Jesus.
